Field Trips

As part of the educational program and included in the program tuition cost will be visits to local courts and meetings with Chinese lawyers, judges, and prosecutors. Trips will also be scheduled to the Great Wall, Beijing, and the Forbidden City. Opportunities will be offered to interact with Chinese law students studying at Nankai University School of Law.