REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MASTER OF LAWS (LLM) DEGREE

Oklahoma City University School of Law offers the degree of LLM in American Law. Enrollment in this degree program is limited to persons who hold a first law degree from a university or law school located outside the United States.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

1. The student must complete 24 credit hours of coursework.
2. The student must complete three required courses: Legal Analysis, American Legal Research and Writing, and Introduction to the American Legal System.
3. A student’s selection of elective courses must be approved by both the LLM Program Director and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

If the student intends to take a bar examination in the United States, the student should consult with the Director of Academic Achievement about suitable courses. If the student intends to apply to the JD degree program upon the completion of the LLM degree, the student should consider courses that will also satisfy requirements for the JD degree.

The LLM Program Director is Dean Emeritus, Lawrence Hellman. The LLM Program Administrator is Dr. Xiaofeng Wu.
