2015 GENERAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Deadline: You must return your completed application to the Associate Dean Laity, Room 415 by 5:00 p.m. on June 1, 2015. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs tries to complete all scholarship decisions for existing students within 30 days after spring semester grades are available.

Instructions: You must complete at least Parts I and IV of this application. To determine whether you should also complete Parts II and III, please read the following:

The School of Law administers several categories of scholarships. The first category consists of scholarships awarded solely for academic achievement. By completing Parts I and IV of this application, you will automatically be considered for this kind of scholarship. The second category consists of specialized scholarships, that is, scholarships for which the donor has established a specialized criterion of eligibility, for example, the recipient must have graduated from a high school in a particular county and state, or intend to practice law in a particular state. By completing Part II of this application, you will be considered for these specialized scholarships. The third category consists of scholarships based partly on financial need. To be considered for one of these scholarships, you must complete Part III.
