Letter to Award Honorary Doctor of Laws

113

OFFICE of the PRESIDENT

OKLAHOMA CITY UNIVERSITY

June 28, 1991

The Honorable William J. Holloway, Jr.
Judge, Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals Circuit
Federal Court House Building
Oklahoma City, OK 73102

Dear Judge Holloway:

I am pleased to inform you the Executive Committee of the Oklahoma City University Board of Trustees voted unanimously to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

The honorary doctorate is the University's highest honor.

The degree will be conferred at an Oklahoma City University School of Law Convocation to be held on August 31 at 10:00 a.m. in the Bishop W. Angie Smith Chapel.

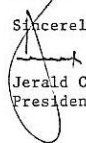

The speaker for the School of Law Convocation at which you will be honored is Justice Byron R. White of the United States Supreme Court.

A luncheon will be held in Watson Lounge of Smith Chapel immediately following the Convocation.

Assuming you accept the University's invitation to accept the honorary Doctor of Laws degree, it would be helpful to receive from you a list of sixteen persons you would have us invite to the Convocation and luncheon as the University's special guests. It would also be helpful to receive your photograph and biographical sketch.

I close by adding my personal word of congratulations on being named to receive Oklahoma City University's highest honor.

Sincerely,

Jerald C. Walker
President
