

OKLAHOMA CITY UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

Volume 39

Number 3

Fall 2014

TRIBUTE TO DANIEL J. MORGAN

- The Life and Times of Professor Daniel J. Morgan, a.k.a. “Dan, the Man, Morgan” Vicki Lawrence MacDougall
- Daniel J. Morgan: The Dean’s Dream Valerie K. Couch
- Dan Morgan: Friend and Teacher Emmanuel E. Edem & Bradley E. Norman
- The Many Roles of Daniel John Morgan Von Russell Creel
- Dan Morgan—The Most Interesting Man in the World Alvin C. Harrell
- What Dan Morgan Taught This Confirmed Introvert About Teaching Michael T. Gibson
- Come to the Gym, Morgan! Michael Mitchelson
- An Outstanding Human Jean Giles & Emma Rolls
- Basically, Essentially, Commonsensically:
The Thomas Paine of Oklahoma City University School of Law Cindy Richard
- Professor Morgan: A Lasting Impression Nicolas C. Wohnr

ARTICLE

- Homeschooling as a Constitutional Right:
A Close Look at Meyer and Pierce and the Lochner-Based Assumptions They Made About State Regulatory Power David M. Wagner

SPEECH

- William Brennan Lecture 2014:
NFIB v. Sebelius and the Constitutional Debate over Federalism Ilya Somin

NOTES

- State Discretion over Subject Matter Standards:
The Rise and Fall of Common Core in Oklahoma Brandi M. Haskins
- Striking the Harmonious Chord for Corporate
Social Responsibility and Individuals: Affirming Closely Held
Corporations’ Religious Objections to the HHS Mandate Sean R. McDivitt
- You Can’t Have Your Beef and Eat It Too: The Statutory Effect of Anti-Corporate Farming Acts on Family Farms and Beef Corporations Kaitlyn Trout