all things wise and wonderful: the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, God made their glowing colors, and made their tiny wings. (Refrain)

morning that brightens up the sky. (Refrain)*

The cold wind in the winter, the pleasant summer sun, the ripe fruits in the garden: God made them every one. (Refrain)

God gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well. (Refrain) - Cecil F. Alexander

†CALL TO WORSHIP

Jesus says, "Do not let your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?"

Jesus prepares a place for all of us.

Jesus promises, "I will come again and receive you to Myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.

And you know the way where I am going."

Jesus assures, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."

Jesus confirms, "I will not leave you as orphans; but will come to you."

Jesus promises, "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, do not let them be afraid."

†AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

As a family of faith, let us affirm our faith together.

I believe in God the Father Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;

The third day He rose from the dead;

He ascended into heaven,

and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;

from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit;

the holy catholic* church;

the communion of saints;

the forgiveness of sins;

the resurrection of the body;

and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

The peace of the Lord be with you.

And also with you.

PRAYER OF COMFORT

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

He has showed you, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:8)

†THE GOSPEL

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (Matthew 11:28-30)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Judge William Judson Holloway, Jr.
June 23, 1923 - April 25, 2014

Early Friday morning, April 25th, 2014 Federal Appellate Judge William J. Holloway, Jr. passed away peacefully in his home in Oklahoma City surrounded by his loving family. Born in Hugo, Oklahoma, to William Judson Holloway Sr. and Amy Arnold Holloway, he moved into the Oklahoma governor's mansion at the age of 7, while his father served as the 8th governor of Oklahoma.

Judge Holloway attended Classen High School, winning the national debate championship and graduating with honors. He served in the United States Army, received his undergraduate degree from the University of Oklahoma in 1947, and went on to Harvard Law School, receiving his LL.B. in 1950.

He was married to Helen Hoehn in Enid, Oklahoma in 1963. He served as an Attorney for the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. before returning to Oklahoma to pursue private practice. Judge Holloway was nominated by President Lyndon B. Johnson and confirmed by the United States Senate to serve on the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals in 1968, where he served for more than 45 years, including as the court's chief justice from 1984-1991. He took senior status on May 31, 1992 but continued to work up until his death.

Judge Holloway was a member of St. Luke's United Methodist Church of Oklahoma City, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, the American Law Institute, and the American, Oklahoma, Oklahoma County and Federal Bar Associations.

Judge Holloway is survived by his wife, Helen Hoehn Holloway, daughter Eleanor Gentry Holloway, daughter-in-law Martha L. Whiteaker, and grandsons Jack W. Holloway and Joshua W. Holloway. He was predeceased by his son, William J. Holloway III. He had numerous devoted and loving extended family, friends, and colleagues.

His lasting legacy, beyond a tireless and honorable service, was to always remember the people whom the law served.

A reception will follow the service at 4 p.m. at the Oklahoma History Center. Judge Holloway will be privately interred at Rose Hill Burial Park in Oklahoma City. Memorial donations can be directed to Doctors without Borders, a charity long-supported by Judge Holloway.
