

STOLES, MEDALLIONS, AND CORDS

The medallions worn by graduates signify the following:

Diversity Council member.....navy neck ribbon
Law Review members.....white neck ribbon
Phi Kappa Phi members.....blue neck ribbon

The stoles worn by graduates signify the following:

Academic Fellows.....white/red trim
American Bar Association Moot Court.....pink
American College of Trial Lawyers Moot or Mock Trial Court.....gold
ITP program.....light blue with red trim
Law Review Board of Editors.....white with purple trim
Spanish for Lawyers.....white with maroon trim
Student Bar Association officers.....white
Student Organization Executive Board Officers black/white trim

The cords worn by graduates signify the following:

3L Class Officers.....gold
Admissions Ambassadors.....royal blue
Agricultural Law.....orange and black
Alternative Dispute Resolution.....silver
American Bar Association.....royal blue and yellow
American Constitutional Society.....teal, maroon, silver
Animal Law.....burgundy
Antitrust and Competition Law Society.....light blue
Catholic Law Society.....red
Christian Legal Society.....purple and white
Corporate Law Association.....red, white, and blue
Criminal Law Association.....royal blue and silver
Energy Law Association.....blue, green, and gold
Family Law.....teal,royal blue and silver
Federal Bar Association.....royal blue and white
Federalist Society.....royal blue and orange
Fighting Innocence Through Exoneration.....navy, white/gold
Ginsburg Inn of Court.....purple
Health Law.....dark green and gold
Hispanic Law Students Association.....red/white, and green
Holloway Inn of Court.....royal blue and orange
International Law Society.....green and silver
Immigration Law.....teal and maroon
John E. Green Black Law Students Association.....black, red and green
Merit Scholars Organization.....royal blue and gold
Murrah Student Association.....old gold and white
Murrah Fellows.....light blue and purple
Native American Law Student Association.....turquoise
Native American Wills Clinic.....maroon, white and navy Organization for the Advancement of Women Lawyers.....pale pink
Oklahoma Bar Association
Law Student Division.....royal blue and yellow
OUTLaws.....rainbow

Phi Alpha Delta members.....purple
Phi Delta Phi members.....red, blue, and gold
Pro Bono/Public Interest.....green
Public Interest Law Group.....royal blue and white
Second Amendment Society.....orange
Sports and Entertainment Law Associationroyal blue and white
Student Ambassadors.....royal blue
Texas Legal Society.....red, silver, and blue
U.S. Military Service members.....yellow